

I am very happy with Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Please Do NOT put through a law that would diminish the effectiveness of that law. Telemarketers in the past have been rude to me -- have denied they are telemarketers. I have had to hang up on them because they wouldn't get off. It has been nice to sit down to a meal and not be interrupted by a telemarketer. I think we used to get one to two calls per night -- now I don't remember the last time we got one. I think we have only had two since we were put on Indiana's no-call list. I have to pay the phone bill -- which allows me to use it for my personal business -- not to be harassed by telemarketers. Again, please DO NOT lessen the strength of this law. Thank you.
